MARINES MUTINIED AND FOUGHT TROOPS

Bloody Battle Lasted All Day at Kronstadt---Trepoff Resigned.

MUTINY AMONG ARTILLERYMEN.

Kronstadt, Nov. 9.—A serious mutiny has broken out among the marine artillerymen, and several officers were killed by mutineers. After overpowering the officers many mutineers landed and attacked shops and public buildings, plundering them and sacked the public spirit depots.

Troops were called out and a fierce fight followed with many casualties. The mutineers secured several machine guns and offered a determined resistance to the troops. Bloody fighting lasted all day, during which many houses were set on fire. A panic prevails.

Officers May Revolt.

London, Nov. 9.—The correspondent of the Mail at St. Petersburg declared that a military coup is forthcoming. He says the officers of several well-known regiments have definitely signified their adherence to the constitutional movement and that the people's next ultimatum to autocracy will find the bulk of the army at least passive.

White's Troubles.

London, Nov. 9.—The St. Petersburg correspondent to the Telegraph asserts that White has been compelled to abandon his efforts to form a cabinet composed solely of liberals and reformists and to fall back on experienced officials whose first duty will be to extinguish the revolutionary conflagration by cashiering officials who by connivance or otherwise are responsible for the recent outrages and massacres.

The correspondent says that Gen. Trepoff, assistant minister of the interior, whose resignation White has repeatedly refused to accept owing to his ability in keeping forces of disorder in check, is now likely to insist upon retiring.

Shipowners Alarmed.

London, Nov. 9.—Shipowners are greatly alarmed over the situation in Southern Russia where rioting has been in progress two weeks. The entire winter trade of the Black Sea region is disorganized and millions of bushels of wheat are rotting at points inland with absolutely no opportunity of getting it to sea.

Trepoff Has Resigned.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 9.—The report that General Trepoff resigned as chief of police of St. Petersburg, was officially confirmed today. Gen. Trepoff has a terrible record for cruelty in suppressing disorders among the people of Russia.

ALMOST A RIOT

When City Marshal Called Preacher in Pulpit a Liar.

Chillicothe, O., Nov. 9.—The village of Frankfort is excited over the sensational encounter between Rev. M. Wilson, of the Presbyterian church and Strawder McNeal, who is the marshal of the place.

Frankfort is a dry town, but there has been a great deal of whiskey and beer imported and on Sunday night Rev. M. Wilson blamed the marshal for it. The pastor referred to the marshal as a pumpkin head and a coward for failing to do his duty, and the marshal, who was present, jumped from his seat and called the pastor a liar.

A riot was imminent but the marshal left the church without trouble. Later the two men met in front of the postoffice and the marshal slapped the minister's face. Bystanders interfered and there were no arrests.

AGREEMENT OF POWERS

Paris, Nov. 9.—France will adhere to the propositions made by Austria and Russia for a joint naval demonstration against Turkey, and compel the Porte to agree to a scheme for international supervision of Macedonian finances. This makes the agreement effective between all powers.

A Big Labor Demonstration Will Take Place in Paducah Next Wednesday.

A big labor demonstration will take place in Paducah next Wednesday, Nov. 15, in pursuance of a decision of the labor unions. There was a meeting of Central Labor body last night when most all unions in the city agreed to take a day off next Wednesday and give a demonstration.

It is claimed by union leaders that many people in Paducah do not know of the street car lockout. So the demonstration was decided upon. A few weeks ago the union motor-men and conductors of the Paducah City Railway did not go to work, claiming that several of their number had been discharged for joining the union and that gradually they were all to be let out.

A committee was appointed last night to arrange for speakers and a speaking place. The program, roughly outlined, is for a big parade with brass bands in the forenoon, and in the afternoon there will be speeches by several men. An effort will be made to get a speaker of national prominence but it is doubtful if one can be procured because the American Federation of Labor is in session and nearly all the prominent labor men are in attendance. At any rate there will be some interesting talkers. It is proposed to make the day a holiday with laboring men.

THE COUNT BEGINS HERE TOMORROW

It is Not Believed It Can Be Finished in One Day.

The Whole Ohio Ticket Elected by Democrats—Hearst to Make a Hard Fight.

OTHER NEWS OF THE ELECTION

The election commissioners will meet tomorrow to count the vote cast in the county and city Tuesday. It is hardly possible for them to finish the work in one day but it will probably be wound up Saturday. The law states they shall meet three days after the election and count the vote, which will be Friday.

The election commissioners are Will H. Farley, L. B. Ogilvie, with Sheriff Lee D. Potter referee.

Will Take Official Count.

Nothing further has been heard from the county elections and the public will have to wait for the official count to get a detailed vote of the county. It is still believed that the Republicans elected four magistrates.

Not Ashamed of Scratching.

The result of the election seems to suit the better class of democrats and many of the democrats who "scratched" are not ashamed of the fact and openly admit it.

"I scratched," one prominent democrat stated this morning, "because I felt that the gang which has been manipulating the strings for the past year or two are not fit people to govern the city. I voted for the entire city republican ticket because I know personally nearly every man on the ticket and he is a clean business man with a conscience and sense of right."

This is only one of the many expressions heard. In this election the people voted for the man, not the politics, and even the mayor admits that the people have selected an excellent ticket.

Missed the Bird, But Found the Coop

Some of the Republican politicians are telling a good joke on a well known Democrat. The Democrat had been advised to vote the straight Democratic ticket, and was instructed, in order to be on the safe side, to simply "stamp under the rooster."

"Well, did you vote her right?" asked one of the Democrats after the polls had closed.

"Yes, and I did," replied the Democrat. "I was look all around mid that rooster, but I was excited and I missed him. I saw dot coop, dough, and says I, 'dot chicken is in dot coop,' so I stamps him under dot coop."

The old fellow didn't realize why the other should be so horrified until it was explained that he stamped under the log cabin and voted the straight Republican ticket.

Didn't Have Their Celebration.

Smithland and Livingston county Democrats take their defeat good naturedly, and a good joke they tell on themselves is in regard to a big celebration that they wanted and arranged for, but did not have. They were confident they would win in Tuesday's election, and sent here and arranged for Capt. Carl Wagner to come up on the steamer Charleston with Paducah's cannon and all the fireworks he could get, in addition to red light powder, and other things essential to a proper celebration. Arrangements were made, but Capt. Wagner yesterday received word that it "was no use," to call it off as the democratic ticket lost. A remarkable thing is that nearly every newspaper in the country was for the machine crowd, but the fusionists won.

Paynter Men Claim $1.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 9.—The managers of Judge Paynter's senatorial race held a meeting at the Old Inn and gave out a statement that Judge Paynter was sure of $1 out of the 116 Democratic votes in the next legislature and that Senator Blackburn was so hopelessly beaten that it was not believed that his friends would allow his name to be presented to the caucus.

Among the fruits of victory in addition to the retirement of Blackburn will probably be the defeat of Senator McCreary two years hence by Gov. Beckham and the passage of a new school book bill.

The friends of the governor say that McCreary did everything in his power to defeat Paynter and that under no circumstances will he be allowed to retain his seat in the United States senate. Mr. McCreary has two years more to hold, but with the Beckham machine in the saddle he will certainly be displaced. It is conceded that the governor will take the place himself.

Tom Drewry's aspirations to be speaker of the next house are not likely of fruition. Mr. George Lawrence, of Cadiz, will be the next speaker.

To Contest in Louisville.

Louisville, Nov. 9.—The managers of the Fusion party have decided to contest in the courts the election of the Democratic ticket for municipal ownership officers and members of the legislature. Alleged falsification of the returns and terrorizing of voters are the grounds upon which the contest will be made.

Paynter Is Confident.

Greensburg, Ky., Nov. 9.—Judge T. H. Paynter when asked about the general results in the state said the next legislature would be Democratic by a large majority and that he was confident of his election to the senate. Small vote polled in this county, and result on legislative ticket will be close.

Hearst's Contest.

New York, Nov. 9.—The contest of William R. Hearst, for the mayoralty is well under way today, and interesting and important developments are forecasted. The board of elections in Manhattan and Brooklyn has had its hands full this morning and is receiving ballot boxes used Tuesday from the police.

A Remarkable Coincidence.

Versailles, Ky., Nov. 9.—Senator J. C. S. Blackburn spoke Monday at Paris. Speaking to some friends of his thirty-one years ago, on the day preceding the election, when he was making his first race for congress he and Hon. Ed. Marshall closed their campaign in Paris and dedicated with political speeches a handsome new county courthouse that

ALSO THE VETERANS

Will Be Honored by the Proposed Confederate Monument.

There has been some change in the idea for the monument to be placed by the James T. Walbert camp of Confederate Veterans and the local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy on the Carnegie library grounds. Instead of being to the southern women alone as first intended, it will be to the memory of the Confederate soldiers also.

The monument will cost not less than $10,000 and as now designed will be a massive granite base for the foundation of the monument. On one side will be a bas-relief of General Lloyd Tighman who went out from Paducah as a captain and was killed at Vicksburg after he had attained the rank of general. Mrs. Louise Maxwell, of the Paducah U. D. C., has been selected to write to the Tighman family for a sketch of his life and a picture to be used in the bas-relief. The opposite side of the bas-relief of Col. A. P. Thompson of Paducah, who was shot when storming the fort that was on the site of the present Riverside hospital at 4th and Clay streets. He had dismounted from his horse, leaving it in charge of Mr. Joseph Ullman of this city and was killed while leading the charge on foot.

The two other sides of the base will be to the memory of all Confederate soldiers and to the loyalty of the women of the south.

A canvass will soon be made by the veterans and local U. D. C. for subscriptions to the monument which will be an ornament to the city.

THE INVESTIGATION

Of Insurance Companies Resumed at New York.

New York, Nov. 9.—In the testimony of John B. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company before the insurance investigating committee, upon the resumption of the insurance investigation yesterday it was brought out that industrial insurance was considerably more expensive than other forms of life insurance, and Hegeman, after classifying industrial insurance as retail and ordinary life as wholesale, illustrated the fact by an example in which for a stated age it was shown that for a $1,000 policy of ordinary life the Metropolitan charged $16.55 annually, while for $984, the nearest amount for the stated age under the industrial plan, $31.29 was charged.

Hegeman was on the stand the greater part of the afternoon and his testimony was along the line of the amount of the company's increase in business.
